THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON NEW ASPECTS IN INSURANCE AND ACTUARIAL THEORIES AND PRACTICES

Tel Aviv University, Israel

April 6 - 8, 1981

The very favorable feedbacks received after the actuarial seminar which was held at Tel Aviv University in May 1978, encourage us to announce the second international seminar. The main theme will be New Aspects in Insurance and Actuarial Theories and practices.

The seminar is sponsored by the Erhard Insurance Center with cooperation of the Israeli Association of Actuaries.

Scientific Program Sessions and Subjects :

1. Applied Models
2. Developments in Risk Theory
- 3,4 Claim Distributions (I & II)
5. Inflation in Life Insurance
6. Inflation in Non-Life Insurance
7. Reserves
8. Speakers Corner (Open Forum).

The presentations in Sessions 1-7 will be given by top international and Israeli theoreticians and practitioners in the field of insurance. All speakers were requested to present their papers in the most nontechnical manner and to emphasize the potential of their models for insurance practice. The speakers corner will be an open forum. Participants will contribute extemporaneous presentations on related subjects (10-15 minutes each).

It is intended that all papers presented at the seminar will be published in a seminars book.
