1989 VOL. 1

TWENTY-THIRD ACTUARIAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE
INSURANCE CATASTROPHES
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT
AUGUST 25-27, 1988

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

This conference is intended to bring together actuaries and academics to discuss the latest developments in the theory of insurance catastrophes, with a particular emphasis on the AIDS epidemic. A number of actuaries who have been active in this area will join statisticians and medical researchers to explore the current state of knowledge. There will be sessions for contributed papers on the conference theme and on other areas of actuarial research.

Papers

Individuals interested in presenting papers are invited to submit abstracts by July 1, 1988. Contributed talks will be scheduled for one-half hour unless additional time is requested. Anyone wishing to speak, but unable to prepare an abstract by July 1 should send a letter indicating a topic and a desire to give a talk. All correspondence should include name, address and telephone number of author(s) and title of paper and should be mailed to the Conference Coordinator.

Registration Fee

The conference fee is $75 (U.S.) which includes a wine tasting and banquet. A special thanks is given to the sponsoring insurance companies for their financial support, which is keeping the registration fee down.

Accommodations

Please arrange accommodations by directly contacting a motel or hotel of your choice. Blocks of rooms have been reserved at the Regent Inn, 5 miles from campus. A bus will be available to transport conference participants.
