Morton D. Miller, FSA 1941, MAAA 1965, the 1967-68 president of the Society of Actuaries, died in July. One of his accomplishments during his term was to change the SOA continuing education meeting formats to offer several sessions simultaneously to address the many different interests of the members. He also initiated recruiting an outside speaker for the annual meeting and increasing the number of members serving as panelists and workshop chairpersons. These improvements continue to this day. Miller was also the organizer of the 25th SOA anniversary celebration in New Orleans in 1974.
