Why are you interested in leading this section?

Retirement is a crucial, complex, yet often overlooked topic for people around the globe. I'm excited for the opportunity to promote the importance of our section and the ability of the actuarial profession to solve the unique challenges that retirement presents for people, employers, and governments. I hope to have the chance to share what I've learned from my unique experiences with the section, as well as learn from fellow council members, and help lead the Retirement section into the future.
