

As a Corporate PD Edge+ subscriber, your team has flexible options for engaging with our professional development content—whether you're watching live webcasts or diving into on-demand resources.

Here's a quick guide to help you choose the approach that works best for your organization:

Broadcast Format

A coordinator registers for the webcast and shares it via Teams or Zoom for group viewing.

- ✓ Promotes real-time interaction and team discussion
- ✓ Attendees can submit questions to the presenter
- ✓ Helps track attendance, if desired

Hybrid Format

The coordinator registers for the webcast and sends a calendar invite that includes the webcast registration link.

- ✓ Each team member registers individually
- ✓ Everyone watches simultaneously at their desks
- ✓ Combines group coordination with individual engagement

Independent Viewing

Team members register individually and watch on-demand or live content on their own schedule.

- ✓ Great for flexible schedules or remote teams
- ✓ Enables personal control over learning paths

Bonus: Access to Recordings

✓ Every live webcast registration includes the recorded version, which is also posted in the PD Edge+ on-demand library within five business days and is available for 30 days.
