
Position Description
The editor has overall responsibility for assuring the timely and efficient publication of the North American Actuarial Journal. The Society of Actuaries (SOA) will provide an honorarium to the editor. The chosen applicant will serve as editor-elect before their term begins on January 1, 2023, and the term is three years, with the possibility to continue for a second, three-year term.

NAAJ Information
The NAAJ scientifically addresses the domestic and international problems, interests, and concerns of actuaries, their customers, and public policy decision makers. The NAAJ publishes papers from traditional fields of actuarial practice, such as life and health insurance, pensions, employee benefits, property and casualty insurance, and finance and investments. Papers from new or developing areas of actuarial practice are especially welcome. We seek to stimulate research on emerging public policy debates, technology improvements, demographic trends, multidisciplinary topics, globalization issues, and the like.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES
Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest and curriculum vitae by March 31, 2022, to Professor Edward W. (Jed) Frees at jfrees@bus.wisc.edu. The letter of interest should offer reasons why the applicant wishes to be editor of this journal and explain how the applicant will integrate their editorial responsibilities with their professional life. More information on the NAAJ is available at http://www.tandfonline.com/loi/uaaj20.
